

Brassmasters, Inc. is pleased to sponsor
The 11th Annual Ed Williams' Memorial
West Virginia State Outdoor Bullseye Pistol Championships
Saturday and Sunday, September 26 – 27, 2026

Sanctioned by the Civilian Marksmanship Program & WV State Rifle & Pistol Association

Tournament Program

Dates: Saturday, September 26th – Sunday, September 27th, 2026;
9:00 AM Saturday; 8:00 AM Sunday
(Walk-up registration and sight-in Friday, 9/25, 12:00 PM – 5:00 PM)

Location: White Horse Center, 127 White Horse Lane, Philippi, WV 26416
County Route 20/3, Crouse Road, Peeltree, WV.
GPS coordinates: 39°07'11.8"N 80°12'54.0"W (39.119944, -80.215000)

Eligibility: Open to all eligible competitors. You do not have to be an NRA member or a member of a Civilian Marksmanship Program Affiliated Club (CMP) to participate

Entry Fees: A package entry fee of $60 includes firing all three (3) stages: .22, Centerfire and .45 in the 2700 over both days of the competition. Should a competitor wish to compete in only one (1) or two (2) stages in the 2700, the entry fee will be $25 per stage.
All EIC Leg Match entry fees are $20, of which $15 of each entry fee is required by the CMP for sanctioned events.

Classification: Current CMP Outdoor Precision Pistol Classification.

“Competitors who do not have a CMP classification, but who have an NRA classification, may elect to compete with their current NRA classification. After a competitor establishes a CMP classification, they may continue to elect to compete with an NRA classification if it is higher than their CMP classification, but they may not compete with an NRA classification that is lower than their CMP classification.” CMP Rule 3.11.6”

“Competitors who do not have a pistol classification (CMP or NRA) can compete in the Unclassified Class for their first classification, CMP Rule 3.11.7”

Awards:

- Open Winner -- Mountaineer Award
- State Champion (must be a resident of WV) -- Mountaineer Award
- Special Class Awards: High Woman, High Senior & High Grand Senior & High Junior --- State Champion Medal

- Aggregate Winner of High Master, Master, Expert, Sharpshooter, Marksman & Unclassified -- Gold Medal
- Second highest scoring High Master, Master, Expert, Sharpshooter & Marksman -- Silver Medal
- .22 Aggregate Winner, firing .22 in all three stages -- Gold Medal

The award schedule for the 2700 is based on a minimum of five (5) entries per class. If less than five (5) entries, that class may be combined with the next higher class at the discretion of the Match Director, except the Master Class

To be eligible for Open Winner or State Champion, competitors must fire .22 in the .22 match, a .32--.45 caliber pistol or revolver in the Center Fire match, and a .45 caliber pistol in the .45 match. In the event of a tie or eligibility dispute, compliance with this requirement will determine award eligibility.

- Leg Points and Medals for the EIC Service Revolver, Service Pistol and the .22 Rimfire Matches will be provided by the CMP.
- EIC Achievement Pins will be awarded at the match.

Rules & Course of Fire: Current CMP Precision Pistol rules governing a CMP Tournament will apply to the 2700 and All EIC Matches. Challenge fee will be $1 and will be returned if challenge is upheld. Challenges to posted scores must be made within the posted challenge period. Targets will be: 50-yard slow fire B-6; 25-yard timed and rapid-fire B-8. Competitors participating in the 2700 will be squaded. The course of fire for each stage of the 2700 will be: 2 slow fire targets, the National Match Course, 2 timed fire targets and 2 rapid-fire targets. Course of fire for EIC Matches will be the National Match Course, except the Service Revolver Match will include 2 slow fire, 1 timed fire & 1 rapid fire target, totaling 400 possible points

Competitors wanting to complete the full 2700 on Saturday will be accommodated to the extent possible on a space-available basis, final decision rests with the Chief Range Officer

2700 stages are:

- .22 caliber: Matches 1, 2, 3, 4 & 5 = 900 aggregate;
- CF Matches: 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10 = 900 aggregate;
- .45 Matches: 11, 12, 13, 14 & 15 = 900 aggregate.

Registration: Pre-registration will be accepted via U.S. Mail, with a check or money order (in U.S. funds) for all stages entered to the range capacity of 48. Pre-registration for all stages of the 2700 will receive priority then; walk-up entrants for the full 2700 then, individual stage entries will be accepted. Entries exceeding range capacity will be placed on a waiting list and notified if openings occur. When submitting your entry form, please indicate preference for 1st or 2nd relay(s); we will do our best to accommodate your choice. If there is a discrepancy regarding date of entry receipt, entry postmark will determine availability of registration and relay preference. Walk-up entries for the full 2700 to range capacity

Camping: Primitive camping is available at no charge. No electrical, water, or sewer hookups are available. Portable toilets will be provided. Campers must be self-contained.

Security Services: No security services will be provided by Brassmasters or the White Horse Center. It is therefore suggested that personal valuables be kept in a secure location

Lodging: Food and lodging accommodations are readily available in Buckhannon (<http://visitbuckhannon.org>), Clarksburg (<http://www.clarksburgvisitorswv.com/default.aspx>), Bridgeport (<http://www.greater-bridgeport.com/>), and Weston (<http://www.stonewallcountry.com/index.html>). These towns are approximately 20–30-minute drive from the range, depending on the location chosen
